

K-love FM 88.7 (Portland, Oregon) Provides a positive uplifting radio format designed to encourage and enlighten local listeners. This station has given me the ability to face the work day with a smile and song in my heart. If this station is not allowed to continue broadcasting on a local level it would deny my rights to hear the religious music of my choice and would back handedly violate my rights to freedom of religion as guaranteed by the Constitution.